

Narragansett High School Summer Reading Grade 10 English Honors

Students enrolled in English 10 Honors are required to read one nonfiction selection (we recommend strongly that you choose one of the pieces below that relate directly to Oedipus Rex) or another “free choice” you find on your own and two fiction texts (you can purchase any hard-copy version of Oedipus Rex, or use the links below for digital options provided) and complete the accompanying fiction assignment for your “Free Choice” to be submitted the first day of class.

Consider choosing one of these strongly recommended articles as your nonfiction choice, which establishes background, and consider completing two-column notes should that strategy help guide your understanding:

- Sophocles
- Oedipus and Modern Reader

You must read (and we recommend taking notes while you read):

- Oedipus Rex (also known as Oedipus the King)
Sophocles
 - PDF
 - Online Link
 - Audio Book
- “Free Choice” - anything goes here! , we recommend completing this novel notes sheet while you read to help your understanding

For your “Free Choice” fiction selection, you must:

- Choice Board Assignment
- CHOOSE ONLY ONE FROM ALL FOUR OPTIONS, NOT ONE FROM EACH!
(must be completed for first day of class)

Click on images below for links to accompanying options

